

Infinity Sport – Terms and Conditions

Effective for all registered participants and parents/carers

1. Acknowledgement of Advice

By registering your child or yourself to participate in any program, training, competition, or event conducted by Infinity Sport Pty Ltd ("Infinity Sport"), you acknowledge that:

- You have received appropriate advice regarding the nature of the basketball activities involved.
- You understand that basketball is a physical and potentially high-risk sport involving movement, contact, running, jumping, and use of sporting equipment.
- You have read and understood this agreement and voluntarily accept the conditions of participation outlined herein.

■ I have read and understood this section.

2. Acknowledgement and Assumption of Risk

- You acknowledge that participation in basketball involves inherent physical risks which may include (but are not limited to): sprains, strains, fractures, dislocations, bruising, head injuries, and in rare cases, more serious injury.
- You confirm that you (or your child) voluntarily participate in these activities with full knowledge and acceptance of all risks, both known and unknown.
- You agree that Infinity Sport, its staff, coaches, and volunteers will not be held liable for any injury, loss, or damage suffered during participation, except in cases of gross negligence.

■ I have read and understood this section.

3. Parental/Guardian Responsibility (for participants under 18)

- Ensure child is fit to participate and disclose any medical conditions or injuries.
- Accompany your child until session starts and collect promptly at the end.

■ I have read and understood this section.

4. Medical Consent

- Authorise staff to provide first aid and seek emergency care if needed.
- Accept financial responsibility for medical treatment and transport costs.

■ I have read and understood this section.

5. Code of Conduct
